The handsome Reception tendered Reverend C. C. Brown and Mrs. Brown by the members of the Presbyterian church recently was unintentionally omitted in last weeks issue. It was at the home of Mrs. D. M. Lackey and in every sense of the word it was an elegant affair. The house was tastefully decorated with trailing vine, ferns and cut flowers and was an inviting spectacle to all. The delicious ices and cake added much to the inner man. A souvenir book with "B" daintily traced by the gifted artist, Miss Jeanie Lackey is something to be treasured by Reverend and Mrs. Brown. Each member of the pastor's flock inscribed his name on the book.

One of the most brilliant events given in Lancaster in recent years was that Saturday evening celebrating the 25th marriage anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Stormes at their beautiful home in this city. No expense was spared to make the occasion a memorable one. The confections and ices were furnished by a leading caterer of Cincinnati. The arrangements and beauty of the festal board were most appropriately carried out in the minutest detail. Each guest departed lavishly in praise of both host and hostess for their genuine hospitality and wishing them many additional years of happiness. The music of a fine harpist of Cincinnati, was enchanting for the entire evening. Misses Fannie Tindler and Margaret Morrow attractively served at the punch bowl.

The out of town guests were as follows: Mrs. E. P. Halley Newman California, Mrs. John L. Anderson Washington City, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hubbard Covington, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Landram and Vernon Richardson Danville, Mrs. Alline Jackson Boggs and Miss Polly Traylor Richmond.

The remains of Miss America Adams formerly a resident of this county were brought here from Lexington for interment. The deceased was a daughter of the late Jones Adams who lived near Bryantsville. An only sister who lives in Texas survives her, and to her much sympathy is extended.

In Memoriam.

When the spirit of Mrs. William Watkins returned to the God who gave it, we said "truly a good woman has passed away". After patient suffering for a number of weeks the end came Monday morning Sept. 17. The home that was filled with sunshine by her presence is now displaced by grief and sorrow. She was reared and lived in this community where she resided until death claimed her. We join in sympathy with the bereaved husband and children especially the little babe that will never know a mother's love. But the Lord knoweth best, and it will be joy to know we'll meet in heaven after while.

In the Bryantsville district Miss Osa Coulter found easier sailing, she winning with 1,075,750 votes while her closest competitor received little more than half as many. Both Miss Powell and Miss Coulter were untiring in their efforts to secure the handsome prizes and have thoroughly demonstrated the facts that they are made of the kind of material that wins, and they richly deserve the handsome prizes awarded them. To the other contestants who were not so lucky, we can but say that we are sorry that it was not within our power to bestow a prize on each and every one of them. They too made noble efforts and they have the consolation of knowing that they did their very best, and their failure to win was through no fault of their own. Some other time they may prove the lucky ones.
